171 Loganlea Road, Loganlea

We are proud to present to the market for the first time, this much loved family residence which is positioned on a sprawling 5870m2 acreage block which meanders down across lush lawns right to the Logan River. Certainly a place where memories are made, this property represents a lifestyle seldom found these days... fishing in the river from your backyard, children running freely across the lush lawns and climbing the majestic old trees.

You will look forward to coming home here to 'your own private parkland', as the owner has fondly described it. This is a place where you will feel instantly relaxed and renewed ... with glorious surroundings like these you cannot feel otherwise. This is a place where friends and family will love to gather. With multiple entertaining zones and of cou...
