29 Jasmine Crescent, Shailer Park

A stunning expression of contemporary design, solid construction and impeccable style on 1400m² with panoramic views, the true identity of this two year old residence is only revealed once you step through the front door. Designed by a leading Brisbane architect renowned for their open-plan designs, the home offers an unparalleled sense of space. The ingenious use of floor to ceiling glass and soaring ceilings throughout the home capture the dramatic views with a sense of seamless continuity between the inside and out. Breathtaking is an understatement. Clean lines, first class interior finishes and a neutral colour scheme appeals to the love of a simple life, while the architect's commitment to thoughtful design has created a str...
